

Effective January 1, 2007, Steve Jenkins succeeded Larry Ashby as President of the firm. The change marks the completion of a management team transition that has been in the works for some time and now frees Larry to concentrate more fully on Ashby & Geddes' corporate practice.