

The Bankruptcy and Insolvency practice of Ashby & Geddes, P.A. is proud to announce the creation and launch of the Delaware Bankruptcy Insider, a premier blog designed to bring readers a comprehensive summary of the latest Delaware corporate bankruptcy news and rulings. The blog can be found here.

Ashby & Geddes' Bankruptcy and Insolvency Practice - Ashby's bankruptcy and insolvency lawyers have been on the forefront of many of the country's largest and most complex reorganization cases since 1991. Its lawyers take great pride in, and are highly praised for, their responsiveness, substantive knowledge of bankruptcy law, and familiarity with Delaware's Bankruptcy Court and local practice. The group regularly represents debtors, creditors' committees, and equity committees as well as key creditor constituencies and parties in interest, such as secured lenders, bondholders, trade creditors, landlords and lessors, preference and fraudulent transfer defendants, examiners, acquirers of distressed assets, foreign representatives, and liquidation trusts and trustees.
